

Some people feel that entertainers (e.g. film stars, pop musicians or sports stars) are paid too much. Do you agree or disagree? What other types of job should be highly paid?

It is often argued by many that ~~entertaining jobs~~ entertainers such as film stars are being paid too much [this sentence structure makes it seem like the JOBS are being paid too much rather than the people] and that is not a positive development. However, I agree that these jobs deserve such high salaries. There are also two other types of job which I think should be highly paid. Better if the last two sentences are merged as follows: "This essay discuss why I believe that these jobs deserve such high salaries and two other types of job which I think should be highly"]

There are some reasons why I think these jobs should be paid highly. Firstly, there is often a short career path in this job sector and people who pursue these jobs should earn as much as possible to ensure their future financial conditions in this short time period. Secondly, these people work hard to gain high recognition in society and hard work should always be rewarded properly. It is no secret that money can be the best reward in return. Finally, maintaining these jobs in society is very important as they entertain people as well as increase mood. Making these jobs less paid may cause them to ~~be-disappeared~~ as there would be less interest to pursue these careers. [This last point seems extremely unlikely...especially as there are already amateur entertainers who do not even get paid at all]

{I suggest you have TWO main points in the paragraph instead of 3 so that you can develop each one more fully and raise your task response.}

Moreover, there are two other types of job which, in my opinion, should also be well paid. One such career is a teacher. We know that this job is very stressful and requires a lot of patience. BesidesIn addition, the future of our young generation is ~~on~~in our teachers' hands. So Therefore, a good salary can be a good motivation for teachers to deliver their lessons more effectively and work on ~~themselves~~becoming better teachers. The same can apply ~~for~~to doctors because doctors are responsible for the lives of many. That is why they should do many researches[uncountable] and spend ~~more~~ [no comparison being made here ot another coccupation] a lot of time to improve their qualifications and all these cost a ~~little~~small fortune.

In conclusion, I agree that entertaining jobs should be well paid and I also argue that teachers and doctors should also be paid highly.

[One sentence is not enough here. I suggest you have a sentence summarising your response to each question]

Below is a brief assessment. I only give full assessments for students who have made payment
